SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was a fairly busy day today. Officers handled several calls which took a significant amount of time to investigate or resolve. A death investigation took three officers nearly three hours to complete. No foul play is suspected. On another vehicle collision call, one of the involved parties had minor injuries and also had a felony warrant. He had to be medically cleared prior to booking. As of the typing of this log, he is still waiting to be cleared for booking, nearly four hours later.

Busy shift. Officers responded to a damaged property call. The suspect was still on scene and arrested for felony vandalism due to shattering a window. While on scene, an involved party reported domestic violence that occurred the day prior involving the same suspect. The suspect was additionally arrested on a separate charge for felony domestic violence. She was booked into jail for both incidents. Officers responded to a vehilce collision with the driver leaving the area. Officers located the driver who was intoxicated. A DUI investigation was initiated and based on that, the driver was arrested for DUI related charges and booked into jail. Officers investigated a domestic dispute between a male and female. Upon arrival the suspect fled from officers. Officers on scene established that suspect had violated a court order, held the victim against her will, kept a witness from speaking with police and violated his probation. The male was located on foot in which he fled from officers multiple times. He was ultimately located and taken into custody. He was booked into jail for the previsouly mentioned crimes.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Tonight, is our first shift back after days off and it was very busy. Our shift started with a male who assaulted his wife and ran from the residence upon our arrival. We were able to establish a perimeter and launch the drone. The drone located the suspect and officers were able to take him into custody. Officers responded to a residence where a son and father were in a disturbance and a shot was fired from gun. Officers arrested the son and booked him into jail for shooting the gun at his father.
