SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Busy shift throughout the day. Officers responded to a disturbance between a male and a female. During the investigation it was determined the female was restrained from the male and had also broken his cell phone. She was arrested and booked into jail for violating a court order and damaged property. Officers contacted a male who was messing around with wires on a light pole. He was determined to have a felony warrant for his arrest. During a search of his person, narcotics were found. Due to his previous convictions this made the charge a felony. He was booked into jail for both the warrant and narcotics. Officers responded to a collision in which one of the drivers was intoxicated. The investigation resulted in the driver being arrested for DUI related charges and he was booked into jail.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today is our first day of our work week. Officers started right out of briefing assisting swing shift with calls for service. Officers located a male on a bike who matched the description from a weapons violation call for service. Officers learned the male had warrants for his arrest. He was placed under arrest and was booked into Jail. Calls for service slowed towards the end of our shift allowing Officers to get caught up on paperwork.
